It's Valley Country Christmas

Date and Time: Sunday, December 8 2:00 pm

Address: 401 Isabella Street, Pembroke, Ontario, K8A 5T4

Festival Hall /Eventure Entertainment is excited to be bringing “It’s Valley Country Christmas “ Sunday December 8, 2024!

Singer story teller Gillan Rutz (Ottawa Valley Music Troubadour and author “ This Valley I Call Home”) live in concert with a homecoming live show. Featuring local artists from every corner of the valley, filling an afternoon of celebration of music of our rich heritage. The Fiddleairs, a local brother / sister duo that is taking the valley by storm, will bring their crowd pleasing fiddle and step show. You won't be able to sit still watching them! Along with up coming rising star Mikaela Roach singing sensation winning the Global country star search in Nashville.

As well as long time veteran SOCAN writer singer Marc Audet, with his own beautiful songs of the season and valley treasures. He will grace the Festival Hall debuting for his first stage show here to round out the perfect show! More guests may be announced. Emcee none other than Brian Burton, host of Pure Country morning man . Brian just has that effect to bring the best out of all performers and the audience with his magic. This special event could not happen without the support of Festival hall and in part sponsored by Charlie and Betty Butler. With gratitude and thanks for their generosity and involvement. It is tribute to your success and community support to the Valley we are able to facilitate this event and we all thank you.

A concert to bring us all together, the best way we know how. Songs and Stories to prepare for the festive season, inviting all from every age to attend.

Main Floor - $30.00 Balcony - $22.50 Please contact the Box Office for Babes In Arms tickets (12 months and under).
